

When reporting datasets based on chronologies (radiocarbon), for new datasets, should the F14C (13C and background correction applied) be considered essential, recommended or desired?

