

When reporting datasets based on trees archives, for legacy datasets, should the missing heartwood rings to pith foundation be considered essential, recommended or desired?

