

When reporting datasets based on trees archives (stable isotope), for new datasets, should the if there is no chronology (or it is floating) how was age established be considered essential, recommended or desired?

