

When reporting datasets based on chronologies (radiocarbon), for legacy datasets, should the F_{14C} (^{13}C and background correction applied) be considered essential, recommended or desired?

