

When reporting datasets based on cross archives, for legacy datasets, should the longitude be considered essential, recommended or desired?

