

When reporting datasets based on chronologies (U series), for new datasets, should the concentrations of ^{238}U , ^{234}U , ^{230}Th , ^{232}Th (plus ^{226}Ra and Ba if measured) be considered essential, recommended or desired?

