

When reporting datasets based on chronologies (radiocarbon), for legacy datasets, should the $d_{13}C$ ratio be considered essential, recommended or desired?

