When reporting datasets based on chronologies (U series), for legacy datasets, should the uncertainty expressed as 2sigma be considered essential, recommended or desired?