When reporting datasets based on cross archives, for legacy compilations, should the funding grant number be considered essential, recommended or desired?